Little Rock, AR- Treasurer of State Dennis Milligan welcomed newly elected Arkansas Girl's State Treasurer Robin Galloway to the office.

Milligan stated, "It is an honor to welcome Treasurer Galloway to the Office of Treasurer of State and turn the keys over to her for the day. Girl's State is a tremendous program and I commend the American Legion Auxiliary for another exciting year."

"It is vital that we continue to educate Arkansas' students about civics and government. This is a wonderful experience to dive deep into the workings of our state government."

Galloway is a native of Stuttgart and attends NAME High School. She will be graduating this year and plans on attending the University of Arkansas at Fayetteville.

Galloway stated, "I am excited to be able to serve as Treasurer of State for Girl's State this year and have appreciated this awesome learning experience. I want to thank Treasurer Milligan and his staff for welcoming me and my staff into the office today."

"I am looking forward to this experience, working with all the office staff and serving the hardworking taxpayers of Arkansas today."
